Etno Jazz / Worldmusic

„Dream-Worldmusic from Budapest”

Biography

Anna Szlávics and Tamás Rock are a singer-songwriting duo from Budapest leading their band, called Cirkusz-KA. Since 2006 they have been creating their “Dream-Worldmusic” songs, born of their cultural roots in native Hungarian heritage and inspired by the diversity of various music influences of their region, adding a flavour of jazz. In 2009 they became troubadours and from that moment, they have taken their intimate acoustic music to various stages in Europe. In 2013 Cirkusz-KA was established as a quartet. The fourth LP titled "Fehér, arany" "White, Gold" they released in December of 2021. They have received a multitude of awards in their careers in their home country, and in foreign countries.
